

Steuben Rural Health Network
@ The Institute for Human Services, Inc.
Organization Partnership Agreement
2013-2017

This Statement of Agreement, made and entered into between

Organization
(Hereinafter referred to as "the signatory")

and the Steuben Rural Health Network;

HEREBY indicates that the signatory agrees to accept partnership with the Network consistent with its Mission, Goals, and Operating Procedures. The signatory agrees to become an active participant in general efforts and activities of the Network directed toward appropriate evaluation, planning, development and utilization of the Network. Each agency or organization shall have one vote on all matters to come before the Network. In the case of an agency or organization having more than one member on the Network, it shall be the responsibility of that agency or organization to designate which of its members will speak and vote officially for them when necessary; and

HEREBY both parties understand that further item or specific agreements and memorandums of understanding may have to be negotiated and entered into as the Network's programs evolve; and

HEREBY both parties agree to cooperatively seek full Network compliance with New York State Department of Health (NYSDOH) Rural Health Network Guidelines and Requirements; and

HEREBY either party may terminate this agreement, without cause, on 60 days written notice.

There is no financial cost required to become a Network partner.

Organization:

Steuben Rural Health Network

Representative(s):

Kelli Y. Mannon, Director

Address

City, Zip

Phone

Email

Date

Date

Please indicate areas of interest:

INSPIRE (Adolescent Health & Wellness)

Girls on the Run of the Southern Tier

Diabetes Prevention Program

Living Healthy Steuben/ Chemung – Stanford
Chronic Disease & Diabetes Self Management

Lifestyles Embracing Activity & Nutrition