

Grants to Support Homeless School-Aged Youth

Grant funding is available for each school district in Chemung and Steuben counties to supply homeless students with tools to meet their specific needs. This could be technology, glasses, a winter coat, you name it. Each homeless liaison may use the funds at their discretion.

Funding amounts available for each school district were determined by the total amount available and the size of the school district.

Options for disbursement

1. Check made payable to your school or the school district
2. Visa Gift Card

Distribution of funds

Liaisons may access these funds by sending an email to Sara Palmer, Vice President of Programs at sep@communityfund.org. Please let us know how you'd like the funds distributed, contact person and mailing address to where the check/gift card should be sent.

We do not require any documentation (receipts, invoices, POs). Please do send us an email letting us know how the funds were spent. Any kind of anecdotal information would be great to hear.

Questions? Reach out to Sara at the email address above. Thank you for all that you do to help students!
